"Mr. Greenleaf's part in the work is not merely Will. IV. "Mr. Greenleaf's part in the work is not merely well, it is admirably, done. His notes are full of learning, carefully considered, and of most commendable brevity. He has had no ambition to magnify his office. He has not encumbered his pages with a showy display of cheap learning, nor imposed upon the profession the necessity of purchasing a mass of speculative discussion, of no practical utility.

The whole work, edited throughout as the first two volumes have been, will be one of the most valuable grifs ever bestowed upon the legal profession, and will add essentially to Mr. Greenleaf's already extended reputation."—North American Review.

"His work will be valuable to every practising lawyer in the country, and ought to have a place in every library. We are happy to learn that it has been thus far well received, and we have no doubt that experience will vindicate the correctness of these first impressions."—Lue Reporter.

"It is a monument of industry, learning and research, which will prove of great utility in the practice of law and in the business of life, and, we think, cannot fail to add to the well-carned fame which Mr. Angell has already acquired as a lawyer and writer on many important and interesting subjects connected with his profession."

[Providence Daily Journal.

"The subject is treated in a practical, plain and intelligible manner, and the book may be carefully consulted by the business man as well as by the lawyer."—Boston Daily Advertiser.

5. INDEX OF CASES.—An Index of the Names of all the Cases in the three volumes of the United States Digost, and the two volumes of the Supplement, alphabetically arranged, with References for each Case to the volume and page of the Digost where it is found; thus making an Index of Cases as well for all the Reports in the United States, as for the United States Digost, and the two volumes and page of the Digost where it is found; thus work has been executed with the most remarkable fidelity and accuracy. To form an idea of the magnitude of the task, it may not be amiss to say that it contains between fifty and sixty thousand cases. These are alphabetically arranged, and the references are made both to the page of the Digost where it is found."—Law Reporter.

University, New Monthly, Fraser's, Tait's, Ainsworth's, Hood's, and Sporting Magazines, and of Chambers's admirable Journal. We do not consider it beneath our dignity to borrow wit and wisdom from Punch; and, when we think it good enough, make use of the thunder of The Times. We shall increase our variety by importations from the continent of Europe, and from the new growth of the British colonies.

The steamship has brought Europe, Asia, and Africa into our neighborhood, and will greatly multiply our connexions as merchants, travellers, and politicians, with all parts of the world; so that, much more than ever, it now becomes every intelligent American to be informed of the conditions and changes of foreign countries. And this not only because of their nearer connexion with ourselves, but because the nations seem to be hastening through a rapid process of change, to some new state of things, which the merely political prophet cannot compute or foresee.

Geographical Discoveries, the progress of Colonization, (which is extending over the whole world,) and Voyages and Travels, will be favorite matter for our selections; and in general, we shall systematically and very fully acquaint our readers with the great department of foreign affairs, without entirely neglecting our own.

While we aspire to make the Living Age desirable to all who wish to keep themselves informed of the rapid progress of the movement—to statesmen, divines, lawyers, and physicians—to men of business and men of leisure,—it is still a stronger object to make it attractive to their wives and children. We believe that we can thus do some good in our day and generation, and hope to make the work indispensable, because in this day of cheap literature it is not possible to guard against the influx of what is not possible to guard against the influx of what is had journal appetite must be gratified.

I NVITE the attention of the Profession and others desiring Law Books to their very extensive stock, which they believe contains the best assortment of American Publications in the United states. Particular attention given to furnishing or completing Libraries for the Departments, Associations, and States.

THE CELEBRATED SHIRT MAKER OF NEW York, visited Washington twice during the last Congress, and on each occasion took a large number of orders for Shirts, Beman Collars, Dressing-gowns, and Gent's furnishing articles generally, from Senators, Heads of Departments, Members of Congress, and other distinguished individuals, to all of whom she acknowledges her obligations for their civilities and patronage, and begs leave to inform them that she now contemplates again renewing her visits at the ensuing Session of Congress—of which due notice will be given in the Washington papers. ms, and States. Orders by mail promptly and carefully executed. Washington papers.

MRS. BEMAN will send her Shirts to any part of the United States, or of the world, and guarantee a fit to any gentleman who will send her the following measures in inches—exact size, with no allowances:

The reputation which these Reports maintain in England and in the United States, is known to all the Profession. The low price at which they are offered, compared with the rates of some of the principal American Reports, of even inferior merit, recommends them particularly to the attention of those purchasing libraries.

A GENERAL INDEX To the first forty-seven volumes of THE ENGLISH COMMON LAW REPORTS.

ENGLISH EXCHEQUER REPORTS.

GREAT DERBY RACE.

The drawing will be conducted upon those honorable principles which have hitherto given so great satisfaction, and secured to the above Association such extensive patronage; and that while the past success and high estimation in which the Club is held are subjects of pleasing congratulation to the projectors, they encourage endeavors for a still further development of their plan. For the future, therefore, the number of prizes will be extended to the portraits of all horses that are entered for each particular race—Non-Starters as well as Winners and Starters. The following list is now open:

5,000 Members to each Class.

It is our determination to make the Law Library the cheapest series of reprints of English Law publications in the country. The Editorial Department will, we trust, be found fully to realize the expectations of those who have enjoyed Smith's Mercantile Law, Smith's Leading Cases, Sugden on Powers, Sheppard's Touchstone, Broom's Legal Maxims, Archbold's Nisi Prius, Archbold's Landlord and Tenant, Crabb on Real Property, Smith on Contracts. Numbers forwarded immediately on receipt of a remittance. Full particulars of the Race will be sent with the fortunate numbers to each subscriber, so that he may know his position, and whether or not he be one of the fortunate. Office commissions 7½ per cent., to be deducted from the above prizes.

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

Published every Saturday, at 12½ cents a Number,
Yearly, in advance, $6.

BY E. LITTELL AND CO., BOSTON.

THIS work is conducted in the spirit of Littell's Museum of Foreign Literature, (which was favorably received by the public for twenty years,) but as it is twice as large, and appears so often, we not only give spirit and freshness to it by many things which were excluded by a month's delay, but while thus extending our scope, and gathering a greater and more attractive variety, are able so to increase the solid and substantial part of our literary, historical, and political harvest, as fully to satisfy the wants of the American reader. and Tenant, Crabb on Real Property, Simili on Contracts.

The high reputation which "The Law Library" has acquired throughout the United States, by the character of its volumes, and by the cheap rate at which its valuable contents have been presented to the profession, is the best evidence we can make of its merits and its claims for your support. We hope, and will aim, to retain this high character.

satisfy the wants of the American reader.

The elaborate and stately Essays of the Edinburgh, Quarterly, and other Reviews; and Blackwood's noble criticisms on Poetry, his keen political Commentaries, highly wrought Tales, and vivid descriptions of rural and mountain scenery; and the contributions to Literature, History, and common life, by the sagacious Spectator, the sparkling Examiner, the judicious Athenseum, the busy and industrious Literary Gazette, the sensible and comprehensive Britannia, the sober and respectable Christian Observer; these are intermixed with the Military and Naval reminiscences of the United Service, and with the best articles of the Dublin University, New Monthly, Fraser's, Tait's, Ainsworth's, Hood's, and Sporting Magazines, and of Chambere's admirable Journal. We do not consider it beneath our dignity to borrow wit and wis-

Such selections will be made from the Diary, and Such selections will be made from the Diary, and from the private papers, as may be considered most likely to promote a better acquaintance with the times in which Mr. Adams lived and acted than is yet possessed, even after all the valuable contributions which have already been furnished from other quarters. On the whole, the publishers confidently believe that there is no work relating to the revolutionary history of the United States, and indeed of the times in which Mr. Adams lived, that surpasses in historical and political value the volumes now offered to the patronage of the American people. And they strongly hope that they shall find themselves so well sustained in this great enterprise as to be encouraged to go on and perfect the other and latter part of it, the Life and Works of the no less distinguished son, John Quincy Adams.

The works will be brought out from time to time, commencing during the autumn of 1849, and completed within a reasonable period, consistently
